Amit Soundalgekar

Associate Consultant

amit.soundalgekar@liw3.com

Amit is a life and business coach with wide experience in coaching, corporate training, and consulting across a range of industries, levels and functions. He is well recognised for leadership facilitation, assessment centres and behaviour management using classroom and outdoor adventure based interventions.

Amit specialises in helping organisations to set their vision, mission and identifying values. His current assignments involve aligning departmental goals to organisation goals and helping individuals and leaders identify strengths and areas of improvement with assessment tools like DISC and rating the PESI (physical, emotional, spiritual and intellectual) health of the organisation.

Amit also works as a consultant for companies to achieve the National quality award and Business excellence award by CII Exim bank.

He is presently assessing and coaching CEOs and executives of small and large scale industries in the domain of IT, services, manufacturing and finance.

With previous manufacturing experience in water treatment equipment and sales experience in the paint and pharmaceutical industries, Amit has become a specialist in negotiation skills, project management, performance management, financial literacy, leadership programs, focus groups, communication skills, presentation skills and team building.

Amit has been a management consultant and corporate trainer for the past 16 years associated with Schneider APC, CISCO, Telstra, Accenture, Magma Fincorp, Hewlett Packard, Goldman Sachs, General Motors, Intuit, ABB, IBM, Novell, EMC, Volvo Eicher, JP Morgan Chase, Siemens, Ingersoll Rand and Ministry of Commerce.

He has been identified as the training partner for Linfox of Australia and CRISIL. He is also a management consultant and performance coach with Expert Engineering, Vinsavi Indotechs, Infinity Fab and Techno systems.

Amit has experience with clients in Europe, Middle East, Africa, Far East, Australia and the UK.
