

LIW | Leadership, not just leaders

Dominic Wells

Associate Consultant

dominic.wells@liw3.com

Dominic is a specialist facilitator, coach and consultant who works with organisations and individuals to improve their competitive position through the acquisition and development of professional leadership & communication skills. Dominic employs an evidence based and outcome focused approach to professional development with a style defined as inspiring collaborative and sometimes challenging.

With operational and executive management experience spanning two decades, Dominic draws on a deep understanding of the challenges faced by organisations and executives looking to develop the leadership qualities of their teams to leverage results. With direct experience in Operations, Customer Service, Sales, and Human Resource Management, Dominic delivers learning programs that produce sustainable personal and professional development outcomes.

Dominic works with a diverse range of industries throughout Australasia Asia and the Middle East. His technical focus includes leadership development, Salesforce effectiveness, communication skills, presentation skills, negotiation skills and cross cultural communication.

Dominic is an accredited MBTI practitioner.

Mini Bio

- Founder & Director of a professional development consulting firm
- Head of Customer Operations for an international telecommunications company

Qualifications

- Masters in Management, MGSM
- Bachelor of Science, Manchester Metropolitan University / Kutztown University PA
- Graduate Diploma in Management Practice, Australian Institute of Management