

LIW | Leadership, not just leaders

Jennifer Arnold-Levy

Associate Consultant

Jennifer.arnold-levy@liw3.com

Jennifer is a senior learning and development consultant and facilitator, transfer of learning specialist and a Professional Certified Coach with the International Coaching Federation with more than 1,000 hours providing executive coaching globally to leaders across all levels of management.

For more than 20 years she has been involved in the design and delivery of leadership development and personal effectiveness programs that specialise in developing the communication and self-management capabilities that are needed for successful leadership and personal well-being and engagement both with her own direct clients and on behalf of organisations such as the Australian Institute of Management, The Australian Medical Association and several universities providing ongoing services to their corporate clients.

Her facilitation and coaching services have supported leaders across diverse industries such as retail, IT, telecommunications, automotive, real estate, health, education, manufacturing, local government, engineering, construction, the SME sector and others.

She currently facilitates within the Graduate Certificate of Organisational Coaching and Graduate Certificate of Applied Business at Swinburne University assisting leaders develop the coaching skills needed for conducting quality conversations that underpin team effectiveness and has been a key collaborator with health professional bodies in developing the coaching skills of members for effective leadership and client management.

Jennifer is also an accredited Genos Emotional Intelligence Practitioner, Strengths Profile Practitioner, Full Circle 360 Practitioner, and an accredited Genos Employee Motivation Assessment trainer.

Mini Bio

- Extensive executive coaching experience across all levels of management in various industries

Qualifications

- Bachelor of Applied Science
- Masters of Applied Science, La Trobe University
- PhD, Department of Psychology, Monash University
- Certificate IV Training and Assessment
- Certificate IV in Business and Personal Coaching
- Certified Meditation Teacher (Mindfulness Based Stillness Meditation), Member, Meditation Association of Australia & ACT
- Workplace Wellbeing Trainer