

LIW | Leadership, not just leaders

Karen Goldschmidt

Associate Consultant

karen.goldschmidt@liw3.com

Karen has over 20 years' experience as a facilitator, coach and organisational development professional. She has worked with leaders at all levels in a range of industries including finance, insurance, technology, health, and professional services, throughout Asia-Pacific. She is passionate about empowering others to reach their full potential and developing coaching capability in leaders.

Karen has a strong business development and leadership background having held management and director positions in Hong Kong and more recently as a strategic business partner focusing on organisational development for a large multinational organisation based in Sydney. These roles required challenging leadership styles and driving engagement in order to deliver on major transformational change. As a facilitator and coach, she draws on her international experience, generalist human resources background, and expertise in organisational and personal transformation.

Karen holds a Masters in Human Resource Management from Macquarie University and is an Accredited Certified Coach with the International Coaching Federation. She is qualified in a number of psychometric tools and assessments.

Karen lives near Bondi, Sydney. She loves the outdoors and is a keen swimmer, scuba diver, and trekker. When she's not working, Karen enjoys spending time with her husband and young son, and visiting her extended family based in New Zealand and Hong Kong.
