

LIW | Leadership, not just leaders

Linda Marshall

Associate Consultant
linda.marshall@liw3.com

Linda works on the design, development and delivery of high-impact employee and leadership programs. She has provided facilitation and coaching for leadership, management and graduate development across the US, UK, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. Working within a global environment, she specialises in working with cross-cultural groups and supporting women in their leadership development.

Linda has worked with a range of global clients, including Jaguar Land Rover, Reed, International Hotels Group (IHG), CDK Global, GSMA and Sainsburys. In addition, Linda has provided coaching for clients within elite rugby and golf. She has led programmes including; cultural awareness, presentation skills, coaching, performance development and HR. She has developed global management programmes for middle and senior managers in Europe and Asia.

Linda has a Masters Degree in Human Resource Management from Middlesex University, and a BSc (hons) in Sports Science from London Metropolitan University. She is a Fellow of the CIPD, and an accredited Trainer of NLP through ANLP. She is DiSC and LAB profile certified, and is currently studying for a PG CERT in coaching to further existing skills.

Mini Bio

- 10 years' experience in senior leadership roles
- Expertise in leadership development, team development and individual career development
- An executive coach

Qualifications

- Fellow of CIPD
- BSc Sports Science, London Metropolitan University
- Masters in HR, Middlesex University
- PG Cert, Business and Personal Coaching, University of Chester
- Level 2 Counselling skills (CPCAB)
- ANLP accredited NLP Trainer