Nicole McAuliffe

Associate Consultant

nicole.mcauliffe@liw3.com

Nicole has over twenty years of experience in the corporate world as an executive coach and facilitator. She has worked with a large logistics firm (National Rail Corporation), Telstra and some of Australia's largest financial services organisations (ANZ, AXA, NAB and Westpac). She has a highly successful track record in the areas of change management consulting (Accenture), facilitation and coaching, and has spent much of her career inspiring professionals to make the most of themselves and their people during times of transition.

Nicole is director of Creative Connections, which was set up in 2003 specialising in career and wellness coaching for women. In addition to being an active executive coach, Nicole is a past President of the International Coach Federation (ICF) in Victoria, the lead facilitator and coach at the Life Coaching Institute of Australia, provides career mentoring to students of Monash Graduate School of Business and has lectured at the Centre for Small Business and Management at Box Hill Institute. Most recently Nicole has joined the team at Fernwood Fitness as a Food Coach.

Nicole is also a Senior Associate with Xplore for Success, a Career Resiliency Program which provides leadership, self-awareness and coaching skills to professionals, with an emphasis on women. Through Xplore, she has worked with organisations such as, Origin Energy, Commonwealth Bank, NAB, Super Partners and CFS in addition to running public programs.

Outside of her career, Nicole loves to keep fit, is a foodie and loves to travel but equally enjoys being at home playing with her dog and tending the garden. She lives and works in Melbourne with her husband and best friend Daniel and her sons Will and Miles.
