

Stephanie Moore

Associate Consultant

stephanie.moore@liw3.com

Stephanie specializes in the design, development and delivery of high-impact employee and leadership programs. She brings her passion and over fifteen years of experience in the areas of executive communication coaching, leadership development, mentoring, strengths-based development, meeting effectiveness and presentation skills.

Stephanie provides facilitation and consultation for Cisco's current global initiative "Put Your Strengths to Work". In addition, she has been a part of the facilitation team of one of the longest running career development programs "Connected Development". She also facilitated a two-year corporate-wide diversity and inclusion process entitled "Micro Inequities: The Power of Small" from senior leaders to individual contributors. She has provided specialized events for Women In Technology as well as ongoing team building events.

In addition to Cisco, Stephanie has provided ongoing facilitation and consulting expertise to a number of long-standing clients including NetApp, Texas Instruments, LinkedIn, Stanford University, Lucille Packard Children's Hospital and others.

Stephanie holds a degree in psychology from St Mary's College of California as well as extensive leadership development experience and certifications. Her certifications and training include a number of assessment tools, including Clifton StrengthsFinder, MBTI, Career Architect, and Values-Driven Work.

Mini Bio

- Over 20 years' experience in senior leadership roles
- Expertise in leadership development, team development and individual career development
- An executive communication coach providing proven strategies on executive-level presentations

Qualifications

- Extensive experience in strengths-based development for managers, individuals and teams using strength-based assessments
- Bachelor of Science, Psychology, St. Mary's College in Moraga, CA
- MBTI Certified.