

LIW | Leadership, not just leaders

Taylor Hawkins

Associate Consultant

taylor.hawkins@liw3.com

Taylor is a strategic advisor, leadership coach and facilitator who works with individuals and organisations seeking to improve their fulfilment and effectiveness in their work.

Taylor's facilitation experience spans across government, large corporations and education and she has designed and delivered leadership development programs for organisations such as; Google, Adidas and NAB. Her technical facilitation focus areas include; leadership development, design thinking, diversity and inclusion, and innovative mindsets and resilience.

In her wider work Taylor works across many sectors empowering leaders to increase their impact, while also empowering others to thrive. With experience in entrepreneurship, management, executive leadership and board directorship, Taylor has a deep, yet agile, understanding of leadership and the varying demands of it in different contexts.

Taylor brings enthusiasm and empathy to every project she contributes to

Mini Bio

- Chief People & Culture Director for an international Non-Profit
- Founder of a strategic consulting business
- Board Director of a national charity

Qualifications

- BA Communications (Public Communications), UTS
- BA Laws, UTS
- Masters of Business Administration, AGSM
- Change Management (Short Course), USYD